

KARAM MAHMOUD AJARMEH

ELECTRICAL POWER ENGINEER

Intro:

I work as a Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Engineer, and I am responsible for Schools Heating Program Phase III (King's Abdullah II Initiative). In addition; 1-Follow on procedures for encouraging establishing local industries for energy efficiency systems and working on developing and improving local manufacturing capacities. 2- Evaluating feasibility studies for renewable energy and energy efficiency projects for different facilities. 3- Participation in energy conservation, renewable energy and energy efficiency studies for all sectors. 4- Contribute to the implementation of energy-saving opportunities and energy programs in private and public buildings. 5- Preparation in the design requirements and technical specifications for tenders and evaluating and selecting the best bid.

Education:

Bachelor's degree in electrical power Engineering from Al-Balqaa Applied University 2010-2014 .

Professional Certifications:

- Certified energy Management Professional
- Certified TIMES-Jordan Model Part 1
- Certified RET Screen Expert
- Certified advanced Measurements and Verification
- Global Warming Mitigation and Adaptation by Balancing Sustainable Energy Management

