

BASMA AL-SHATTI

HEAD OF SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES SECTION

Intro:

She is the head of Technical assistance department in Jordan Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Fund in the Ministry of Energy and Mineral Resources with experience in energy sector in the field of Energy Conservation and Energy Efficiency since 2012. She is spending her career in energy conservation and energy efficiency field assisting with developing, implementing and supporting energy efficiency programs. She participated in designing and developing the legal and institutional Framework in energy efficiency and establishing the Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Fund. Also she participated in the designing of energy efficiency programs, managing and supervising the implementation of energy efficiency measures with the applicable financial support windows in different sectors such that Hotel Program and Industrial Program. In addition, she is responsible of creating capacity building training program related with energy efficiency and energy management issues. She is a member of different local committee's such that energy audit licenses committee for licensing companies working in energy audit field in Jordan and the national committee for preparing the technical standards of energy management in JSMO (Jordan Standards and Metrology Organization).

Education:

B.Sc. Degree Industrial Engineer, University of Jordan.

Professional Certifications:

- CERTIFIED ENERGY MANAGER CEM,
- RENEWABLE ENERGY PROFESSIONAL REP.
- CERTIFIED MEASUREMENT & VERIFICATION PROFESSIONAL CMVP.
- CERTIFIED PUBLIC PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP PROFESSIONAL CP3P.
- CERTIFIED INTERNATIONAL SUPPLY CHAINS MANAGER CISC.M.
- EUROPEAN FOUNDATION FOR QUALITY MANAGER EFQM.

